

Beauty

Vs. 1

You caught me looking back again
A reminder of where I've been
Why does this dream have to end

Chorus

No I can't see it now
Help me believe somehow, will You open my eyes
Through fire, through the rain,
Counting losses I have gained, it's a matter of time
Till I see the beauty, the beauty in all the pain
(Till I see the beauty, the beauty behind the pain)

Vs. 2

A troubled spirit, a broken heart
I'm trusting in all that You are
Even though I'm torn apart

Bridge

This is so hard to comprehend
But I trust it all in Your hands
